WASHINGTON NOTES.

WASHINGTON, September 12.

One of the "funny" features of this campaign in the National Capital is the evident desire of the leading Republicans to keep President Roosevelt and his record in the background; to efface him and his record absolutely.

When the average Republican here meets his Democratic friend and proceeds to a discussion of the political situation, he gleefully says to the Democrat: "You have no issue; where and what is your issue?" When the Democrat, with a smile, remarks that we will make all other issues subordinate and a secondary consideration to Roosevelt and his record, the Republican immediately throws his hands up and practically says: "For heaven's sake don't do that!" It simply accentuates the importance to the Democracy of Roosevelt as a campaign issue.

When every effort is being made by Republican leaders to compel Roosevelt to hide behind his former self; when the ex-Secretary, Chairman of the Republican National Committee announces that the President will make no speeches in this campaign, it means that he will be given no opportunity to make a blunder; it means he will try self-effacement as an effort to overcome his record for rant, strenuousness, display, military spirit, hypocrisy and moral cowardice.

Roosevelt has fooled a whole lot of people. If Democrats, everywhere, will only instruct the people who have been fooled on the facts of his record, they will be fooled no longer.

President Roosevelt himself is giving every sign of being aware that Rooseveltism is to be a leading issue of the campaign. And it is evident that he so little enjoys the prospect that he is sedulously endeavoring to recreate himself—to make a new Roosevelt for presentation to the respectful, if not awed, consideration of the voter.

The Roosevelt that Mr. Roosevelt wishes the American citizen to contemplate is a grave, silent and thoughtful statesman, an austere Chief Magistrate, absorbed in the dignified discharge of his lofty duties.

The characteristics and properties which made his reputation are no longer visible. Impetuosity, volubility, soldierly frankness and swagger have vanished. The khaki uniform has been laid away in the closet with the sword and big stick, while the cowards and weaklings who came in for so many an oratorical drubbing are given a well-earned vacation. Exhortations to parents respecting the size of their families and to clergymen to be good are heard no more. Even the preaching of civic righteousness, with Addicks and Platt and Payne in a front pew, has been given up.

But, unhappily for the President, the new Roosevelt, the campaign Roosevelt, cannot separate himself from the old Roosevelt's record. And it is to that record that he will be held during the canvass and at the polls.

From now until November Mr. Roosevelt will be obliged to "bump the bumps." And the bumps on the slide are many. He must come in contact with public distrust inspired by a headstrong egotism and an incurable arrogance. His contempt of law; his substitution of his own royal will for the constitutional action of Congress; his affronting and threatening attitude toward our sister republics; his hasty and bellicose temper in foreign affairs; his suspension of the statutes of the land in favor of rich and politically powerful trusts; his praise for Knox, the corporation lawyer and corporation protector, as the best Attorney-General the country ever had; his disingenuous and ineffective dealing with corruption in the Post Office Department; his insults to Admirals Dewey and Schley and General Miles; the unconscious and apprehension with which he has filled the business community by his warlike spirit and love for doing startling things—all these are bumps which Mr. Roosevelt will have to bump.

And the bump which doubtless jars the President worst of all in his studied silence is the reluctance of the trusts to fill the hat which Mr. Cortelyou—who was a trust-investigator and is to be Postmaster-General, with mail contracts to let to railroads, in the event of Republican success—is beseechingly passing. Wall Street declines to respond with the customary campaign contributions. Mr. Roosevelt has not injured the trusts in pocket, but he has hurt their feelings. In order to accumulate political capital he made speeches against them and had Knox to bring a harmless suit or two, and the trusts are resentful, or at least some of the wealthiest and most important are.

Business men who are not in the trusts, but who have acted with the Republican party and drawn checks for it in Presidential years, do not feel this time that their commercial salvation depends upon a Republican victory, especially a Roosevelt victory. And that is a particularly bruising bump.

Sadly the new Roosevelt has begun the bumping slide down the record of the old Roosevelt, the real Roosevelt, the Roosevelt that would reappear again with every aggressive and reckless quality doubly emphasized were he to be elected. There is no Coney Island gaiety in his "bumping the bumps," for he makes the descent with intense unwillingness. He dreads the November landing.

If Mr. Roosevelt did not fear Rooseveltism as a vital issue he would dare to be himself, welcome discussion of his characteristics and deeds and not try at the eleventh hour to offer himself as a changed man—a chastened, mild and inoffensive gentleman to whom the clanking of swords, the waving of big sticks and violent language are abhorrent.

But the bumps of the ineffaceable record are there, and bump them Theodore Roosevelt must.

Jury Picked in Breathitt County Cases.

The Breathitt county cases came up in the Circuit Court at Mt. Sterling last Saturday. The case against "Ticky" Jim Bach, charged with false swearing, was called first. He is defended by Lewis Apperson, C. W. Nesbitt, H. R. Prewitt, and Henry Watson. The Commonwealth is represented by Commonwealth Attorney Connor, County Attorney C. F. Thomas, A. F. Byrd and R. H. Winn. After three hours time a jury was selected to try the case.

The case against Callahan and French will be tried next. About fifty people are there as witnesses from Jackson and Harrison. A. O. Adams, the main witness for the Commonwealth in the latter trial, is on hand. All of the cases will be bitterly fought. Much interest is being taken and the hotels are crowded to their capacity.

Some sensational testimony has been promised. Attorney Byrd will speak for the prosecution in both cases. No trouble is feared, though much feeling is shown on both sides.

What is Life?

In the last analysis nobody knows, but we do know that it is under strict law. Abuse that law even slightly, pain results. Irregular living means derangement of the organs, resulting in Constipation, Headache or Liver trouble. Dr. King's New Life Pills quickly readjust this. It's gentle, yet thorough. Only 25c., at all druggists.

JAMES B. CECIL,

Successor to Cecil Bros., is now receiving a new stock of

PANCY AND FAMILY GROCERIES,

He is also proprietor of the COTTAGE INN, where traveling men will be treated in a homelike manner, and in his FEED STABLE horses and vehicles will receive the best attention.

He also carries HARNESS, a full line of, and will make to order any thing in that line. Lap robes, dusters, buggy whips, &c., will be kept in stock and everything sold at a close margin of profit.

STATE COLLEGE OF KENTUCKY,

Lexington. - - Kentucky.

The Agricultural and Mechanical (State College) of Kentucky offers the following courses of study, viz: Agricultural, horticultural, chemical, biological, mathematical, physical, normal school, classical, mechanical engineering, electrical engineering, civil engineering, mining engineering, each of which extends over four years and leads to a degree. Post graduate studies are also provided, leading to a master's degree. Each course of study is organized under a separate faculty. The general faculty number nearly fifty professors and instructors. County appointees receive tuition, room rent in dormitories, fuel and light, and if they remain ten months, traveling expenses.

The laboratories and museums are large, well equipped, comprehensive and modern.

The Legislature appropriated $60,000 for a college home for young women, and $30,000 for drill hall and gymnasium for men. Both buildings are completed and in use. Military tactics and science are fully provided for as required by Congress.

Graduates from the several courses of study readily find excellent positions and liberal remuneration. The demand is largely in excess of the ability of the college to supply. Last year the matriculation was 750.

Specialists with the necessary number of assistants have charge of each department of natural science. Summer schools are provided for pedagogy, engineering and instruction in science.

The State College of Kentucky, though bearing hitherto the title of "college," is the only institution in the Commonwealth doing in any proper sense university work.

The completion of the college home for young women provides facilities for good board and lodging. It is equipped with all modern conveniences, including bath rooms and room for physical culture. It is heated by steam and lighted by electricity.

An opportunity is thus afforded to them of a thorough education in classics, modern languages, literature, science, mathematics, logic, metaphysics, history and political economy. No other institution in the State offers advantages for education of women at all comparable to those offered by the State College of Kentucky.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,
ALTON BROOKS PARKER,
OF NEW YORK.
FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
HENRY C. DAVIS,
OF WEST VIRGINIA.
FOR CONGRESS, 10th DISTRICT,
HON. FRANK A. HOPKINS,
OF FLOYD COUNTY.

JOHN W. TAULBEE, the present efficient County Superintendent of Schools for Wolfe county, is announced in our paper today for re-election to the office. Mr. Taulbee has rendered entire satisfaction to the patrons of the public schools, and in every district pupils have advanced through his timely lectures on education. Then, again, while the office is by no means a political one, the Democrats are in the ascendancy in this county, and his fealty to that faith is deserving of reward. He has never voted other than the ticket from top to bottom, and always added his aid when friends were aspirants. Aside from politics no man in the district can say ought against his administration, unless, indeed, it is some man who wants his place. Well done, good and faithful servant, is the general verdict of the people, and the party in primary on Nov. 12th will treat his claim with that view in sight. So far he is the only man officially known to THE HERALD, and in consequence the only one we can consistently endorse. And to our Democratic brethren we commend him in confidence that his claims will have due consideration.

Don't

Think because you have taken many remedies in vain that your case is incurable. Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured many seemingly hopeless cases of scrofula, catarrh, rheumatism, kidney complaint, dyspepsia and debility.

ROBERT CARROLL, of Campton, who has twice made the race for County Clerk on the Democratic ticket and each time defeated by the smallest margin, is again a candidate for the nomination. Each time he had a cripple against him for whom the sympathy was strong and against whom he was himself not strenuously opposed for the same reason of sympathy. But when defeated Bob Carroll worked for the successful nominee in season and out. He rode night and day for him, and at the time had the love of every well-thinking Democrat for the good work he did under the circumstances. Indeed Bob Carroll is one Democrat upon whom there are no flies; no man can say that he ever scratched a ticket or went back on a friend, and this time he will be next to indomitable. The man who beats him will have to get up early and sit up late if it be possible to defeat him, and this is doubted by some of the best Democrats in Wolfe. As to qualifications no man is better equipped, and no man has a better moral character. With these ideas before the Democratic party, we are satisfied that he will get his reward. He has always been so true to his friends that he has sacrificed his own chances, and this will tell in the coming primary.

Change of Committee.

CAMPTON, KY., Sept. 11, 1904.
Editor HAZEL GREEN HERALD:
By authority vested in me as Chairman of the Democratic Campaign Committee of Wolfe county, I hereby designate and appoint the following as committeemen for the various precincts of the county, namely:
Precinct No. 1, Floyd Arnett, vice J. C. Linden; Precinct No. 2, H. F. Pieratt, vice Carl Mize; Precinct No. 3, L. R. Hollon, vice Dr. H. H. Stamper; Precinct No. 4, J. Creech, vice W. B. Bush, Jr.; Precinct No. 5, Isaac Hollon, vice Dr. Ben Hatton; Precinct No. 6, Edgar Kash, vice James Spencer; Precinct No. 7, A. B. Landrum, vice Dr. S. S. Swango; Precinct No. 8, John R. Hobbs, vice Walter Oliver; Precinct No. 9, J. H. Stamper, Jr., vice S. P. Howe. Yours truly,
C. C. FULKS,
Chairman Democratic Campaign Committee of Wolfe county.

Mort Cecil has just completed his new house on Grassy. It is a commodious one. The painting on the outside was done with good material—the weather-boarding is light gray, trimmed with white. Sam Wilson did the painting. He goes this week to Fiddling Cox's at Toliver to varnish furniture.

Pearful Odds Against Him.

Bedridden, alone and destitute. Such, in brief, was the condition of an old soldier by name of J. J. Havens, Versailles, O. For years he was troubled with kidney disease and neither doctors nor medicines gave him relief. At length he tried Electric Bitters. It put him on his feet in short order and now he testifies, "I'm on the road to complete recovery." Best on earth for Liver and Kidney troubles and all forms of Stomach and Bowel ailments. Only 50c. guaranteed by all druggists.

Lynching Threatened.

Wild excitement prevailed in Jackson Tuesday night over an alleged attempt of John Porter, colored, to criminally assault Mrs. S. B. Stedham. Porter was arrested by Deputy Sheriff H. Centers and Policeman Smith, and taken before Magistrate John Edwards, who held him over to the grand jury. It is alleged that Porter seized Mrs. Stedham on the streets in the dark, but was frightened away by her screams. News of the attempted assault spread like wild fire, and soon crowds of people gathered on the streets, and a lynching was threatened. Porter tried to escape, but was captured by the officers.

J. TAYLOR DAY SUCCESSFUL.

Induced Dr. Howard Company to Make Special Price.

After a great deal of effort and correspondence, J. Taylor Day, the popular druggist, has succeeded in getting the Dr. Howard Co. to make a special half-price introductory offer on the regular fifty cent size of their celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia.

This medicine is a recent discovery for the cure of all diseases of the stomach and bowels. It not only gives quick relief, but it makes permanent cures.

Dr. Howard's specific has been so successful in curing constipation, dyspepsia and all liver troubles, that J. Taylor Day is willing to return the price paid in every case where it does not give relief.

The old-fashioned idea of dosing with mineral waters, cathartic pills or harsh purgatives will soon be a thing of the past. The best physicians are prescribing Dr. Howard's specific because it really gives the desired results and on account of the small and pleasant dose that is needed.

Headaches, coated tongue, dizziness, gas on stomach, specks before the eyes, constipation, and all forms of liver and stomach trouble are soon cured by this scientific medicine.

So great is the demand for this specific that J. Taylor Day has been able to secure only a limited supply, and every one who is troubled with dyspepsia, constipation or liver trouble should call upon him at once, or send 25 cents, and get sixty doses of the best medicine ever made, on this special half-price offer, with his personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure.
